

The most institutionally vetted solution on the market.

Launching a blockchain is no longer just about technology—it is about creating a trusted ecosystem that institutions can build on. As digital assets move toward tokenized securities, stablecoins, RWAs, AI agents, and programmable finance, networks need trusted asset intelligence, transparent counterparties, and scalable infrastructure from day one. Lukka provides the institutional foundation that helps blockchain ecosystems accelerate adoption, support compliance requirements, and attract builders, exchanges, custodians, and financial institutions.

Ecosystem Visibility

OneFi — The Source of Financial Truth

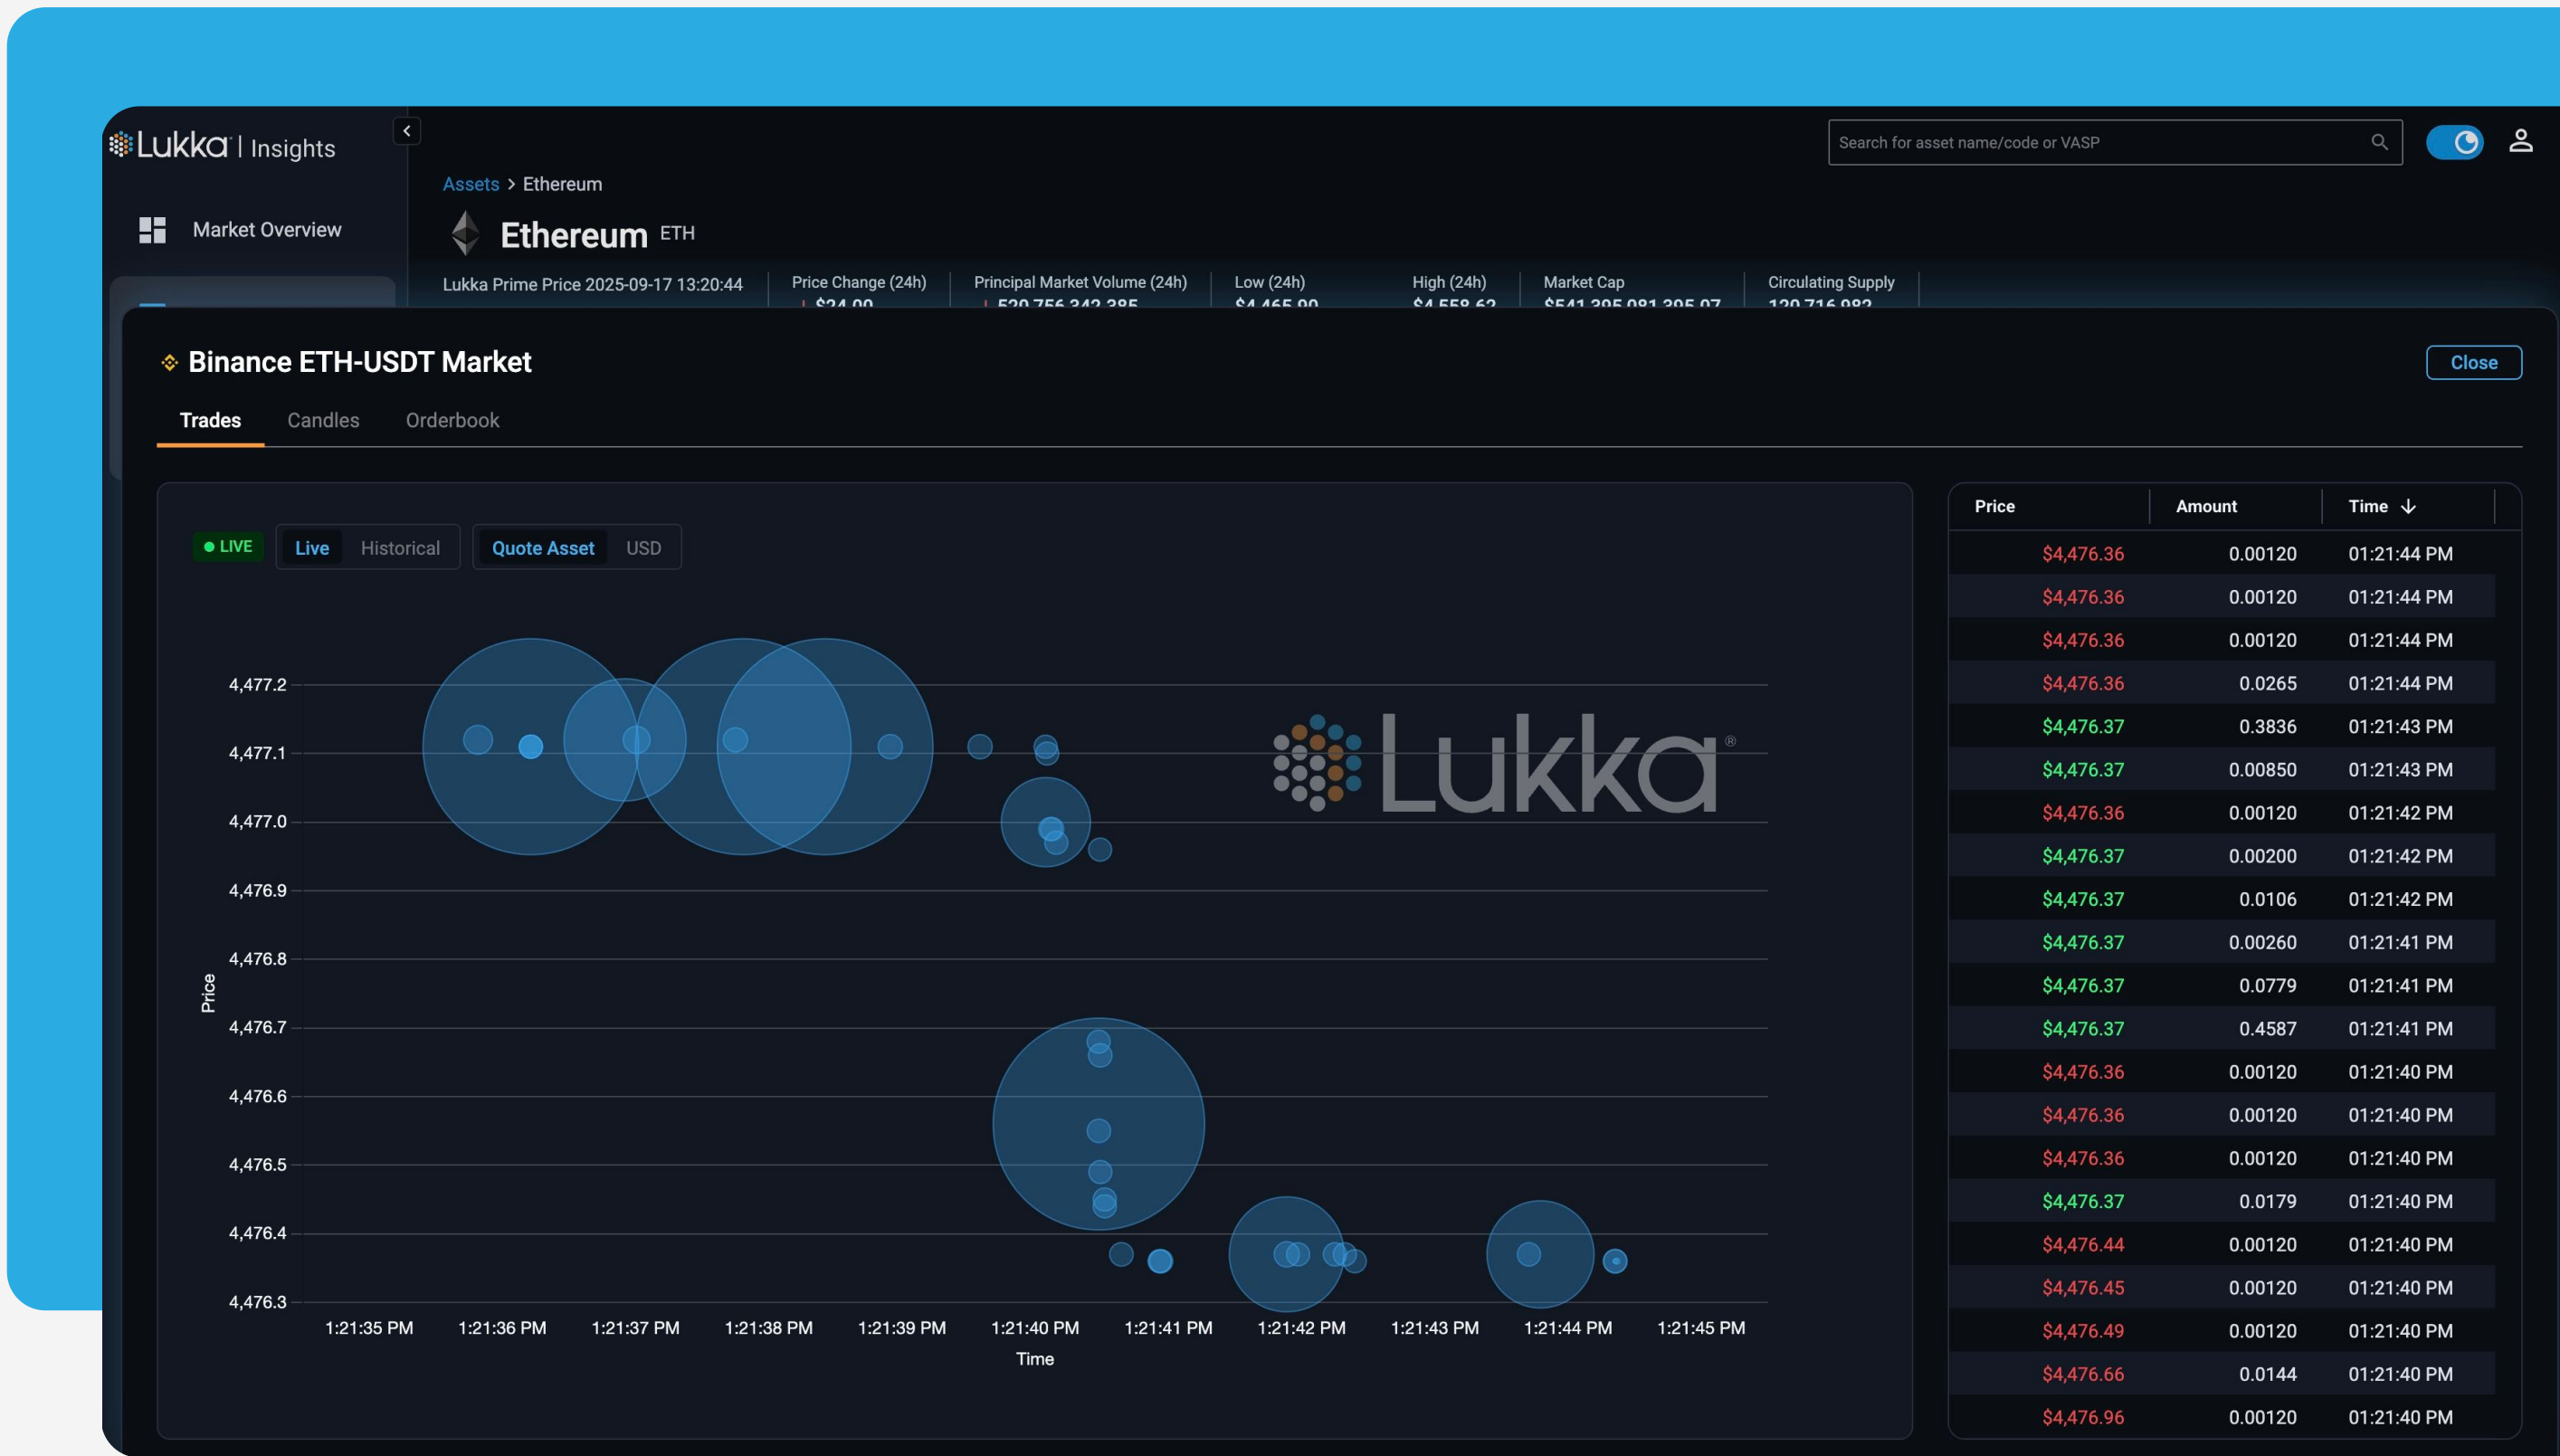

Establish a standardized source of truth across assets, participants, applications, and on-chain activity.

Comprehensive Asset Coverage

Leverage intelligence across 2M+ assets, 108 blockchains, tokenized assets, stablecoins, and emerging digital asset ecosystems.

Asset Lifecycle Intelligence

Track listings, delistings, forks, migrations, rebrands, token actions, and ecosystem events that influence adoption, liquidity, and market participation.

Institutional Adoption

Accelerate Exchange & Custody Support

Provide the asset intelligence, classifications, pricing, and governance frameworks required by exchanges, custodians, brokerages, and institutional market participants.

Expand Institutional Access

Help financial institutions evaluate, onboard, monitor, and support ecosystem assets with confidence.

Build for the Next Capital Markets Stack

Enable tokenized assets, stablecoins, RWAs, prediction markets, and programmable financial applications from a common foundation.

Trust & Compliance

VASPClear — The Source of Counterparty Trust

Establish trusted relationships across ecosystem participants, service providers, institutions, and digital asset counterparties.

Identity & Counterparty Intelligence

Provide visibility into licensing, jurisdictional, ownership, and operational information across digital asset entities.

Compliance at Scale

Support AML, sanctions, governance, and institutional onboarding requirements through transparent and auditable intelligence infrastructure.
